Shocking Murder.

A most shocking murder occurred near Swift Creek, in Pitt county, recently, under the following circumstances, as nearly as we can ascertain:

It seems that on Saturday, the 9th inst., Wiley Smith had some kind of a frolic at his house, at which a number of persons had assembled, some of them, had congenial spirits, indulging considerably in a carousal, Wiley a- lished. The expenses at a court, for man and horse, was mong the number. For some cause, one Thomas Smith, from ten to twelve dollars—now it will average fifteen to a quiet unassuming man, and a neighbor who was pres-These lands, comprising about a million of acres, extend from the St. Marks to the Apalachicola Rivers; they exhibit every variety of timber indiginous to this latitude, including, that Wiley had been heard to say during the day that he intended to stay sober to have an affray with Thomas, which precaution, however, he was unable to observe to 85, with 86 courts, New Hanover having two weeks. strictly, as all his acquaintances know.

About night he made an attack on his victim, and being a large, athletic man, beat him very badly. Upon

> A Law Broken by the Maker. The recent duel in California, between Wm. F. Ferguson and George Penn Johnson, in which the former lost his life, presents a curious case. There is a duelling law in California, the penalties of which are very severe. This law was drawn up and passed by the exertions of Mr. Johnson. It provides that if death ensues within one year after the date of the duel, from any wound inflicted, the survivor, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the State prison for any term not exceeding seven years, nor less than one year, The surviving party is liable for all debts of his victim and for the expenses incurred, and the support of his family during his sickness-if he was not killed instantly-and the heirs of the deceased are entitled to recover took place on West 30th street, last night. A young man named Goulding, whose father is a lumber merchant, attacked his father with an axe, breaking his skull and inflicting a mortal wound. His mother coming to the assistance of her husband, was badly wounded. Two brothers, respectively three and thirteen years of age, were next attacked and the eldest mortally wounded. A married sister, with a babe in her arms, was also attacked, but not seriously injured. Two servant girls were horribly wounded; the recovery of both is doubtful. The perpetrator of this horried act is only nineteen years of age, and is a clerk in a store, but was very dissipated. His next step was to lock himself up in his room and blow his brains out.
